Farmingville, NY - The Brookhaven Animal Shelter has more than 20 Papillon dogs that are now being offered up for free adoption after they were signed over to the Town by their owner. All the dogs have been examined by a veterinarian and declared healthy for adoption. The free adoption includes free spay and neuter and free micro chipping. Dogs that are adopted will also receive the four in one vaccination, rabies inoculation and license. Free adoptions of all animals in the shelter will continue until Monday, June 30. Pictured are Town Animal Control Officer Allana Hebel and Supervisor Ed Romaine.

"These are beautiful dogs that need a loving family," said Supervisor Ed Romaine. "Unfortunately the previous owner could not properly care for these animals, but we're happy that she signed them over to us so we can find them good homes. I encourage residents to come to the shelter, meet these dogs and take advantage of the free adoptions."

Those who are interested in adopting one of the Papillon dogs, or any other dog or cat should visit the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center located at 300 Horseblock Road in Brookhaven. The center is open Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. (closed Wednesdays), Saturday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and Sunday from 11:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. For more information, please call the Brookhaven Animal Shelter and Adoption Center at 631-286-4940 or visit www.brookhaven.org/animalsshelter.
